

2018 SARS Summer Tech Camp

Location: Mt. Hood, OR

Dates:

Departing June 25 - skiing June 26 - 30 (5 days on snow)

We will return the night of the 30th following training.

Van Departure – June 25 - 8:00 am Sandpoint office, 9:00 am Hayden Super 1, and 10:00 am Spokane Fred Meyer.

Age Eligibility:

YOB - 2009 – FIS team

Camp Content:

5 day SL camp for U16 / FIS group.

5 day GS / SL combo camp for 2nd year U10 – U14's. U14's will also train "some" with the 16's.

Athletes:

Group 1 - U16 and FIS Team members based on athletes' age for the 2018/19 season.

Group 2 – 2nd year U10 - U14 athletes' based on age for the 2018/19 season.

Lodging:

Collins Lake Lodge in Government Camp

1 or more coaches will be in each condo

2nd year U10 athletes are required to participate in Option 2, Drop-In Camp (see below)

U12's participating in Camp Option 1 are expected to be independent enough as to not inconvenience their peers

Meals:

See meals by cost options below. Athletes should bring snacks of their choice.

What to Bring:

All SL and or GS skis and related equipment

Tuning box

Dry-land clothing and shoes for afternoon activities, swimsuit

Backpack for on the hill, sunscreen, H2O bottles, healthy snacks, rain jacket, and winter clothing

Online Registration:

Space is limited - Max 30 athletes

Registration is required prior to departure and deadline is June 1, 2018

Questions? Email jamie@sars.net or call 208.946.7859

Cost:

Option 1 – $1,250 Full Camp (transport to/from Mt. Hood, training, lift tickets, lodging, daily transport to/from hill, 5 breakfasts, 5 lunches, and 5 dinners)

Option 2 – $950* Drop-In Camp (daily transport to/from hill, training, lift tickets, and 5 breakfasts)